

YTI Career Institute is committed to the highest possible standards of ethical, moral, and legal business conduct. In conjunction with this commitment and YTI's commitment to transparency, this policy aims to provide an avenue for employees and constituents to raise concerns regarding the administration of Federal Student Aid programs; possible violations of institutional or programmatic accreditation standards; violations of state regulatory requirements; unethical conduct; illegal conduct and fraud if they choose to report anonymously. However, if an employee feels that their anonymity is not required then they should follow our existing grievance procedure.

Non-discrimination Policy Equal Opportunity

YTI admits students of any race, religion, age, disability, political affiliation or belief, color, gender, sexual orientation, genetic information or national origin, to all the rights, privileges, and activities generally accorded or made available to students at YTI and does not discriminate on the basis of race, religion, age, disability, political affiliation or belief, color, gender, sexual orientation, genetic information or national origin in administration of its educational policies, admissions policies, loan program, placement services, housing assistance, and other school administered programs.

Title IX Notice of Nondiscrimination

YTI does not discriminate on the basis of sex in its education programs or activities and is committed to ensuring an educational environment free of sexual harassment, including sexual violence, and to full compliance with Title IX of the Education Amendments Act of 1972 and other federal and state laws governing such conduct. The following individual has been designated as the Title IX Coordinator by YTI to handle inquiries regarding YTI's Title IX policies, including receiving and responding to information about any incident of sex discrimination:

Randi Wolf
Director of Learning Resources and Student Services
1405 Williams Road, York, PA 17402
