The 7th Annual Hereford Zone Car Show, is this Saturday. The show is open to all makes, models, and years. If you have a vehicle with wheels, you can bring it! In past the show has had Model A's, Model T's, Hot-rods, classic cars, Ferraris, Lamborghinis, motorcycles, and even Fire Trucks. There are 200-300 vehicles expected this year, which is a lot larger than past shows.

The show supports the Leib McDonald Technical School Scholarship Fund. The scholarship is for a graduating Senior from Hereford High School who will be attending a technical school for automotive technology, diesel mechanics, motorcycles, or HVAC.. Travis Brown is this year's recipient. He was awarded the scholarship 3 weeks ago, and will be attending York Technical Institute for Motorcycle Mechanics. Recipients are judged on several criteria including GPA, attendance records, letters of recommendations, and good fit for the scholarship. It's a bit of a challenge to receive the scholarship and Travis should feel proud he got it.

Including the car show, right across the plaza there will be 100.7 The Bay's BBQ Bash. There will also be activities for the whole family. Crafts, games, live music, face painting, and contests with prizes. Cars will be judged with 25 trophies awarded to the top vehicles on display, and 34 different awards. The first 100 cars will receive a dash plaque. It will be a fun day for all!
